President's Message

Greetings!

I would like to talk about the book I read and took to heart and have shared with a number of people. The book is called The Four Agreements by Don Miguel Ruiz.

The first agreement is:
Be impeccable with your word.

I would say most of us live by this agreement already. Everybody I come in contact with gives their word and keeps it.

The second agreement is:
Don't take anything personally.

This one for me has changed a lot of things. I was sure when somebody was telling me something it was about me personally and when I started not taking everything that was said personally, and stepping back from what was said, I realized most of what happens is about the speaker not the person they are speaking to. This is to say, the speaker comes from a different place with their thoughts and actions. By not taking it personally and becoming offended, we can listen and hopefully receive more information and clarify what is being said.

The third agreement is:
Don't make assumptions.

The third agreement made a big difference for me. Everybody is different and has a different back ground and was raised in different part of the country and learned things that made them unique. So you can't assume that they know the same thing you know. That is why communication is key to understanding what is going on.

The fourth agreement:
Always do your best.

This one is possibly the hardest one because it easier to take a shortcut. But I find it a good reminder fore what we need to do each day.

Well in closing the book is very interesting to me and probably the best self-help book I ever read.

Barbara is now home and feeling better. She is still receiving Physical therapy and doing well.

Thanks,
Rob

Sunday Services

7/07/19 Speaker: Frank Curtis

Background: Frank Sunshadow Curtis' Native American background stems from his Penobscot grandmother, Addie Huntoon Curtis and Chippewa grandfather Oscar P. Curtis. While the storytelling comes from his mother, Ruth, and father, Frank Curtis, Sr inspiration also comes from his wife Ellen and son Braden Tan Curtis.

Topic: "Native American Presentation"

Summary: Frank Sunshadow Curtis will discuss the importance of the natural wonders of the earth and playing his Native Flute music. His discussion will include his Native American ancestors, and the Creator's designs of nature that gives all access to rivers, lakes and oceans.

7/14/19 Speaker: Dr. Tom Hibberd

Background: Dr. Tom Hibberd, an honorary Irishman, is a clinical psychologist in private practice in Inverness. He is also a member of NCUU.

Topic: "How the Irish Saved Civilization!"

7/21/19 Speaker: Rod Broker

Background: He is a retired clergyman with a long career of service to Lutheran churches who has left that milieu behind and now fully embraces the values and principles of Humanism.

Topic: "From Christian Minister to Christian Humanist"

Summary: He will be sharing his life journey of service within organized religion now and beyond.

7/28/19 Speakers: Katie Neely

Background: Katie Neely grew up in the Florida Keys where she was an avid reader and explorer. After high school, Katie worked with children internationally and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from the University of South Florida. Katie moved to Citrus County in 2007 and helped co-found Aspire, a nonprofit that educates young people on healthy relationships. After ten years in the classroom, Katie moved to Tampa to pursue a career in writing. Katie is currently editing her first book, a memoir on recovering from alcoholism. She and her fiancé live in Tampa, where she continues to write about mental health, addiction, recovery, and relationships

(Katie Neely - continued)

Topic: “ Life Is Hard, So Make It Beautiful: Thoughts on addiction, recovery, and relationships”

Summary: Katie will share her story of addiction, recovery, and the path to spirituality and self-awareness. She will address ways in which the community “gets it right” with recovery services,
and offer ideas on ways to improve these services (especially among young people).
